However, avoid using overly complex language that will make it difficult for the examiner to understand you.
3. Speak clearly and at a natural pace: The IELTS examiner will be looking for you to speak clearly and at a natural pace. Avoid speaking too quickly or too slowly, and make sure to pronounce your words correctly.
4. Listen attentively to the examiner's questions: The IELTS examiner will give you a question prompt and then ask you a series of questions.

Make sure to listen attentively to the questions and answer them directly and fully.

5. Ask for clarification if needed: If you do not understand a question, do not hesitate to ask the examiner for clarification. The examiner will be happy to help you understand the question so that you can provide a complete and accurate answer.
